

Delticom: 9-Monthly Report

- Revenues up 15.1% year-on-year to EUR 201.6 million
- 19.6% revenue growth in E-Commerce division
- EBIT increased by 64.6% to EUR 14.7 million

Hanover, 9 November 2009 – Delticom AG (German Securities Code (WKN) 514680, ISIN DE0005146807, stock market symbol DEX), Europe's leading online tyre dealer, has released its consolidated interim report for the first nine months of 2009. Accordingly, Delticom lifted its revenues by 15.1% to EUR 201.6 million (9M 08: EUR 175.2 million). In the third quarter revenues increased from EUR 53.7 million by 16.3% to EUR 62.4 million.

CEO Rainer Binder is pleased with the course of business: "In the third quarter, Delticom has once again enjoyed substantial growth. E-Commerce continues to gain in popularity. As market leader we have succeeded in strengthening our position." According to a recent study published by the Allensbach Institut für Demoskopie (IfD), 66% of German Internet users shop online (2008: 63%). Other European countries show similar trends. Delticom benefits from this: The E-Commerce division posted a topline growth of 19.6% year-on-year, from EUR 158.7 million to EUR 189.8 million. In contrast, the Wholesale division was hurt by the recession, with revenues dropping 28.3% year-on-year, down to EUR 11.8 million (9M 08: EUR 16.5 million).

Delticom has further improved its profitability since the previous year: EBIT for the first nine months of 2009 came in at EUR 14.7 million (9M 08: EUR 8.9 million), equating to an EBIT margin of 7.3% (9M 08: 5.1%). Consolidated net income increased significantly to EUR 10.0 million or EUR 0.85 per share (9M 08: EUR 6.6 million, EUR 0.56 per share). Frank Schuhardt, CFO: „Thanks to the early snowfall in mid-October, the winter tyre business has started on a promising note. We are confident that we will attain our revenues and earnings targets for 2009“.
